

Top Tips for Hosting a Site Visit for Local Schools

Introduce your business by providing an overview and highlighting key, interesting facts.

To help keep the audience's attention, show as many departments as possible.

Introduce staff, especially if you have any young employees or apprentices.

Talk about your job role and what is involved day-to-day.

Plan activities which give attendees an interactive experience.

Talk about how staff members can progress with the company.

Talk about all the different opportunities your company has to offer and how pupils can get into these roles.